

PROGRAMME

USING POTENTIAL OF APPLIED BEHAVIOUR ANALYSIS IN EDUCATING PUPILS WITH AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDERS

October 19 th 2017, 9 AM - 1.30 PM

Auditorium of Faculty of Education of Charles University
Magdalény Rettigové 4, Prague 1 Nové Město

- 9:00 - 9:30 Registration
- 9:30 - 9:45 Foreword
Václav Pícl MSc., Ministry Of Education, Youth and Sports
- 9:45 -10:45 School Based Interventions for Students with Autism: Lessons from Pennsylvania
Michael Miklos, M. S., BCBA , PaTTAN AI
- 10:45-11:45 Lunch break
- 11:45-12:45 Making the right choice
Amiris di Puglia, MD, BCBA , PaTTAN AI
- 12:45-13:00 Verification of potential of Applied Behaviour Analysis as a teaching tool for pupils with Autism Spectrum Disorder in classroom setting, a trial based on PaTTAN Autism Initiative
PhDr. Jana Zapletalová, National Institute of Education (NÚV)
- 13:00-13:30 Questions and final remarks

Hosted by Klára Šimáčková Laurenčíková MSc.

Seminar will take place under the auspices of prof. PaedDr. Michal Nedělka, Dr.- Dean of the Faculty of Education, Charles University with kind contribution of Ministry of Education of Czech Republic, Czech Society for Applied Behaviour Analysis and Faculty of Education of Charles University and Masaryk University.

